

Firefly's Inaugural Chartered Flight to Nanning

Written by Administrator II

Wednesday, 18 April 2012 22:46 - Last Updated Wednesday, 18 April 2012 23:35

Firefly, the subsidiary of Malaysia Airlines' has launched its charter service directly from Penang to Nanning, China with the Boeing 737-400 aircraft. The chartered flights to and from Nanning are scheduled to fly on 19th April and 26th April 2012 via the Penang – Nanning route and back.

In conjunction with the new charter service, Forever Travel Service is having a promotion with an eight-day promotion tour package to Nanning at only RM2,488.00. The package is inclusive of air tickets, visa fees, accommodation and meals.

This chartered flights aims to bring more tourist from China to Penang and also introducing Penangites to the delights and fascinations of Nanning. The itinerary includes the county of Yangshuo, Guilin and Longsheng aside from Nanning.

There, travelers get to enjoy the magnificent scenery and natural wonders such as the Silver Cave in Yangshuo, cruising on the Lijiang, Raoshan in Guilin, Guilin Sun and Moon twin towers, Nanning Nanhui Park, beautiful rice terraces in Longsheng, watch the legendary "Liu San Jie" and try local delicacies such as Yangshou beer fish, Guilin bee hoon and many more.

Below are the itinerary for the flights:

19th April 2012

Penang (12.45pm) – Nanning (3.45pm)

Firefly's Inaugural Chartered Flight to Nanning

Written by Administrator II

Wednesday, 18 April 2012 22:46 - Last Updated Wednesday, 18 April 2012 23:35

26th April 2012

Nanning (4.55pm) – Penang (8.05pm)

For more information on the eight-day Nanning and Guilin tour, please contact Forever Travel at 04-226 6633 or visit them at 14B Aboo Sittie Lane, 10400 Penang.

For flight bookings to Nanning, log on to <http://www.fireflyz.com.my/>.

